NEW BUSINESS:

1. Stafford Historical Society:

Supervisor Clement presented a copy of the Town of Stafford Historical Society's yearly report he recently received from Phyllis Darling, Vice president of the Historical Society. A brief discussion ensued regarding their budget figures. No further action was taken.

2. Misc.

- Town Clerk Kershenski asked the Councilman for some policy information or guidance regarding advertising for vacancies on the Town Planning & Zoning Board of appeals. It was generally agreed that there should be a potential pool of candidates available to the Town Board Members to choose from in the event that vacancies occur on these Town Boards. Based on this, it was suggested that Walt advertise for potential candidates for these Boards to keep on file in the Town Clerk's office to quickly fill vacancies if they occur.

- Supervisor Clement reported that the interior painting of the Town has been Completed and that the Chair Moldings in the Court Room need to be installed next. Also, The Town Board needs to proceed with acquiring detailed plans for building a new Bathroom facility at Emery Park.
